Please note:

Companies have made selected software available at an academic price. These specially-priced packages are available to accredited institutions, as well as their faculty and staff members. Also eligible are students enrolled in qualified post-secondary, degree-granting programs. (US & Canada only) Official documentation indicating current status is required at time of purchase. (University-issued I.D. showing current dates, current class schedule, pay stub indicating employment or letter on University letterhead indicating current status as student, faculty or staff.)
